

Confidentiality & Privacy Policy

All members must have respect for information entrusted to the Club by the members. The Club's Confidentiality Policy identifies the general Privacy Principles as:

- Non-intrusive in the way information is collected
- Care is taken to make sure information is relevant, up to date and necessary for the provision of the Club
- Respect for the rights of individuals to have their privacy protected
- Transparency about the purpose of the information collected
- Restricted access by people to the information held by the Club.